SECTION 3

SPECIAL NOTES FOR STUDENTS (Department Policy / Practice)

3.1 Academic Advising

The programme coordinator is responsible for the overall management of the programme as well as being the academic advisor for students. Each new student is assigned with a advisor and a student can seek advice from his/her designated advisor throughout the whole study period.

3.2 Applying for Overloading of Units

When a student wishes to take 19 & above units, permission will only be granted if his/her cGPA is equal or over 2.67 (i.e. average of B-).

When a student wishes to take 21 & above units, permission will only be granted if his/her cGPA is equal or over 3.00 (i.e. average of B).

Deviation from these guidelines may be granted by the Programme Coordinator only for special cases, for example, overload due to re-taking of “fail grade” course or being in the final term in final year.

3.3 Plagiarism & Cheating in Student’s Work / Test

“Plagiarism” means using someone’s work as one’s own work. The Department takes serious action if a student is found to commit plagiarism or cheating. Penalty may include a “fail” grade of a course or even dismissal for a serious case. Details of the publication “Avoiding Plagiarism” by the Academic Registry can be accessed on <https://ar.hkbu.edu.hk/quality-assurance/university-policy-and-guidelines/avoiding-plagiarism>

3.4 Academic Problems

Students who wish to appeal against any academic decisions should follow the appeal procedures listed under Section 1-1.10.

3.5 Audio / Video-taping in Classes

Approval has to be sought from the class instructor concerned if the student wants to have audio/video-taping during a class. The class instructor has his/her right in either granting or not granting the approval.
